"Hale and Hearty" features Snub Pollard. The comedian appears in an unusual role, that of an old man of eccentric habits, and then the action shifts back to the days when he was young, when hoopskirts were in vogue. Marie Mosquini is seen as the object of "Snub's" affections, who becomes his wife, and Eddie Baker is the unscrupulous rival of the old days. The rival is a champion football player and is admired because of his wonderful punting ability. In a most amusing way, Pollard outwits him and wins the girl.
